

No School Monday
October 12, 2015
Columbus Day

Today is World Egg Day

Today is October 9, 2015

Day 2

Pride: Respect For All

"Respect people's feelings even if it doesn't mean anything to you, it could mean everything to them."

Clubs after school today—Girls Basketball and Games&Friends

Book Club will meet every Tuesday in the Library beginning October 27 during lunch.

The novel that will be read is Dying to Meet You by Kate Klise.

Permission slip can be picked up in the activities office. (Limited to the first 20 students)

If you enjoy running, relay races, and getting exercise, the running club is for you.

Running club is open to all girls and boys in grades 4th, 5th and 6th grade. This club is limited to 30 students.

Please come to the activities office to pick up your permission slip.

National Chemistry Week-Illustrated Poem Contest is open for contestants. Forms are in the GATE office and in the activities office.

Please see the flyer on the activities webpage for more details on the above clubs/intramurals.

The Memory Book (yearbook) front cover contest is under way. This year's theme is I LOVE SCHOOL. Draw you best design and submitted it to the activities office by October 16th.

No late entries will be accepted. Only one entry per student.

The PTO is having a Box Top Contest. It will run until October 30. The homeroom in each grade level that brings in the most Box Top Labels will win a classroom reward.

Mrs. Petro and the PTO are sponsoring a food drive for the North Hills Community Outreach.

One can good = one raffle ticket--2 can goods = three raffle tickets.

Students can bring in as many can goods as they wish.

Two different winners: gift basket worth $100.00 or a bicycle worth $100.00

October 15th is Picture Day and McTeacher Night-McDonalds Rte. 8 5/8pm

Titan Trail-----Are you on Pace for the Titan Trail? If you have read and passed 5 Reading Counts quizzes by Oct. 16, you will receive a BOOK IT certificate to get a free pizza from Pizza Hut. Happy Reading!!

The Backpack Initiative Food Drive has begun. We are asking for single-serving snacks.

Please drop them off in the activities office.

Students who already have PNC Bank saving accounts can bring their money to the GATE classroom on Thursday, October 14th during homeroom to make their deposits.

If you are interested in having your child participate in the School Banking Program, please refer to the school's webpage for more information.