Day 3

CLUBS and ACTIVITIES:

Do you think you're good enough to claim the title of SAMS Olympic Team Champions? Do you have the strongest, fastest, and most talented friends out there? Gather your team to compete in the craziest events known to man at the 1st Annual SAMS Olympics on Thursday, May 24th. Begin assembling your 6-person team to earn the right to compete for World Champions. Pick up papers in the Activities Office in the morning or during lunch, and return them with payment by Friday, May 18th. Each team member will contribute $10 towards their class funds which will be used for Senior events and activities during your 12th grade year. Questions? See Mr. Gray in Room 350 or Miss May in Room 347. PLEASE NOTE that if you have been suspended during the month of MAY, you may not participate on a team. ALSO, all teams must be completed and have the money collected before turning in your form.

FRIDAY, MAY 11, 2018

TODAY all library fines will be capped at $1.00. This is a one-day event. Don't miss this end of the year opportunity.

All 8th grade baseball players that played on the Freshman Baseball team will meet coach Ament on Friday in the Cafe with 15 minutes left in the school day to turn in their uniforms.

Students interested in playing tennis there will be a SAMS Summer Tennis Camp for current 6th, 7th and 8th graders on June 18-21, 25-28 from 10:15 – 11:30 at the Shaler Area Tennis Courts. Cost of the program is $100, cash only. For more information or questions, please contact Coach Brian Duermeyer at duermeyerb@sasd.k12.pa.us to register. Flyers are available on the curvy counter outside of the Activities Office and hanging in the hallways.

Attention All Track and Field Athletes – There is a collection box located in the Activities Office. Please return your uniform in a plastic bag marked with your name on the outside and a slip of paper on the inside.
