Listen to this important announcement that must do with your well-being. We all need to be safe! But being safe entails knowing your environment and how to care for yourself in different surroundings. The FACS and Nature Clubs are having an after-school session on self-defense techniques using Tae Kwon Do led by instructor Master Cottage of Young Brothers Tae Kwon Do. It's fun and interesting besides being what people need to be safe. Bring a partner and come join us! Don't forget, please sign up outside the Activities Office that you plan on attending. The date for the session will be Tuesday, October 10, 2017.
